In an idyllic painting of Eden, Peter Wenzel wonderfully depicts the harmony and multiplicity of all God's creatures. The pastel heavens and the majestic soft mountains give a natural warmth and serenity to the background. Birds appear to be chatting in a tree while a tiger plays with a hare at his feet. A lion and lioness vigilantly stroll their kingdom, inspiring security rather than fear. There is space to run, shade for rest, a path under a leafy arch that invites us to walk. Eden is the perfect habitat of protection, freedom, and fraternity.

And in the center are Adam and Eve. Traditional farm animals are nearby, and man's best friend is at Adam's right hand with a cat sitting at his feet. Like our first parents, we are not alone in our search for God. We are surrounded by many of the wonderful creatures he has placed alongside us to reflect his glory and show us his love.

When God comes looking for people in the Garden, he expects to find them enjoying the beauty and harmony of his creation. Yet original sin, that abuse of freedom by doubting God's goodness, destroyed humanity's innocence and his unity with creation. What was cherished now becomes a source of fear and suspicion. We destroy and pollute what God gave us to use and to preserve. Trusting in God's goodness, as proved by the wonderful beauty in creation, is the key to inner peace and unity with others and creation. Doubting his love is to doubt our very source and goodness. —Fr. Mark Haydu, LC

Bishop Folda was ordained a Catholic priest in 1989 in Lincoln, Nebraska. Bishop Folda attended St. Charles Borromeo Seminary in Philadelphia where he obtained a bachelor of arts in philosophy and a master of divinity. He went on to the Pontifical University of St. Thomas Aquinas in Rome for his licentiate in sacred theology. Bishop Folda was installed as Bishop of Fargo on June. 19, 2013 and has served on various committees of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops.

You are invited.....

You are invited to the 50th Wedding Anniversary Mass for Frank and Linda Seitz on Saturday, June 30th at 1 pm. Reception to follow at Riverview Curling Club. No gifts please.

Dear Padre: Does a Saturday wedding Mass count for Sunday obligation?

Your question is frequently asked of priests, so it's good to help clarify this matter. If you attend Mass anywhere in a Catholic rite either on Sunday or in the evening of the preceding day, then the obligation is satisfied (Canon 1248). "Evening" is generally understood in most dioceses as anytime from 4 pm onward. Thus, an afternoon Mass (wedding or otherwise) before 4 pm on Saturday is not an evening Mass and doesn't fulfill the obligation.

Moreover, if Mass is celebrated in a Catholic rite after 4 pm on Saturday, the Sunday obligation is satisfied regardless if the scriptural texts differ from those of the Sunday or holy day (Canon 1248 commentary).

A related question often asked of priests is whether Communion may be received more than once a day. Any eligible Catholic can receive Communion "a second time on the same day only within the Eucharistic celebration in which the person participates" (Canon 917). "A second time" doesn't mean "repeatedly." Only those in danger of death, or priests who trine at Mass, can receive Communion a third time in one day. This law is intended to promote a full sharing in the Lord's Body and Blood, while preventing the abuse of receiving multiple Communions out of misguided devotion. —Fr. Byron Miller, CSsR
